It's Spring. Your corresponding secretary has been on extended travel for work, so we are combining the March and April newsletters. Here are some very important announcements from the board meeting:

- Regular Prize drawing is Moving to right after the Break; just before the auction--Starts at March Meetings thru May: The board has addressed the shortage in meeting ticket sales by moving up the prize drawing ahead of the meeting regular raffle. The Club is going to try this approach to see if it improves the regular meeting ticket sales; and, the FCC board will re-evaluate at the May board meeting for the June Meetings.

- The Club is dropping All-Gold Prize drawing at May 14th Meeting (BBQ/Potluck) - keeping all Gold drawing for Holiday Party: Because of the persistent high prices for gold and silver, the FCC board has decided to drop the all-gold prize drawing associated with the spring BBQ/potluck held on. We will have a regular silver prize drawing for that meeting. We will keep the all-gold prize drawing associated with the Holiday party. FCC board felt this was necessary to keep a balanced budget for the year.

- FCC Show Raffle Tickets now available for check-out: Please see Don Ehlers to check out your show raffle tickets. This is the major source of revenue for the club to sponsor all of the activities we do throughout the year. Each book earns the seller a copper medal. Two books earn the seller a free meal at the Installation Dinner in January.

- National Coin Week is April 21st thru April 27th: The club will be hosting member exhibits at the Bank of the West near Lake Elizabeth/Central Park (39533 Paseo Padre Pkwy, Fremont, CA) again this year. Set up is Monday April 22nd at 9am; tear down is the following Monday (Apr 29th at 9am). The club has a limited number of display cases. Please see Briita Ehlers for more info

- Coin Shows in June: Modesto June 22-23 Stanislaus County Coin Club, Modesto Centre Plaza, 1000 L St., (10th and K Streets) and Concord June 28-29 The Clarion Hotel, 1050 Burnett Ave Concord Ca.

Lastly, Please note the very nicely written remembrance of our club's co-founder Ron Miller after page 4. Heartfelt words and important lessons about people and this hobby of ours. Thank You Stan Turrini for writing the article and forwarding it to me. Glad I could put that into this newsletter.

A very special tribute to our club co-founder Ron Miller

Good Morning, Monday, March 18, 2013

I felt compelled, even though it has been twenty years, nearly to the day, to write something to submit to NUMISMATIC NEWS, and its ViewPoint, or COIN WORLD, and its Guest Commentary, about the late 'Ron Miller', of whom all of you knew. It would also be submitted to the CALIFORNIA NUMISMATIST and be included in NCNA HEADS AND TALES. Remember: Have Fun With Your Hobbies! Always Serve Others! Enjoy Your Collecting! And, Create Hope and Do Good! -----Michael S. Turrini

RECALLING RON---GONE BUT STILL REMEMBERED

"I Count Myself In Nothing Else So Happy, As In A Soul Remembering My Good Friends."----Shakespeare

It has been two decades, since March 16, 1993, when Ronald Lee 'Ron' Miller was tragically murdered in his Fremont, California coin shop.

In the weeks following, there were tributes in various California periodicals and local newspapers, summing that Ron was an 'ambassador to numismatics', attending a coin show nearly every weekend, belonging to over fifteen (15) local coin clubs as well as national and specialty groups, serving as President of the Fremont Coin Club, San Jose Coin Club, and Northern California Numismatic Association (NCNA), as well as other positions. His most notable contribution was cofounding the Fremont Coin Club back 1971. In addition, he was a frequent speaker at local coin clubs, a generous supporter toward local coin club activities, and a staunch supporter of youth numismatics, plus a recognize authority in California tokens and Buffalo Nickels, which he once addressed as his niche.

While it has been twenty years, and many may not remember him, his presence is still felt. At Fremont Coin Club meetings, every once in a while, his name is mentioned, always in respect and reverence, among coin dealers who have been in the business for many years, his name is spoken in kindness and acknowledgement of his knowledge and enthusiasm for our hobby, and his famously labeled coin holders and flips still appear just as the day that he marked and staple these.

These are all good, and these speak of the legacy Ron left. His legacy is not just memories or his famous flit-tipped written wavy lined flips with that unique left hand writing; no it is greater lessons.

Ron always preached quality. Buy and collect quality, not just the highest grade or best choice specimen, but, quality in the look and rarity. His talks always punctuated that quality never deteriorates nor loses its luster and only earns value and enjoyment years afterward.

Ron always believed in service. The aforementioned short summary is "only-a-tip-of-the-iceberg" of his service. He committed himself to service in those groups that he joined and became active. He once remarked to this author that after a particular grueling ordeal at a local coin club board meeting he thought about quitting; I asked what he did: he returned to the next meeting and continued, rising to become its President.

Ron always encouraged others to participate and to contribute, not so much to replace him in a particular position or assignment, but to join in effort. He firmly believed and advocated, by his own example, that one should be more than a dues-paying member: one should be a committed and contributing member.

Ron always never forgot that family is first. With all his shop hours, weekends at shows, and regular cycle of meetings, family was first. Fred G. van den Haak still remembers that he and Ron would always talk about their families and children rather than a coin purchase. My late Mother never forgot Ron telephoning a message saying he could not attend an evening event since one of his children was quite sick, remarking as the dad, he had to be with his kid.

It is these qualities that endure, and among those dwindling number of acquaintances, customers, and friends there are other lessons left, a legacy: something now two decades later that lasts, and cannot be forgotten.

Words can recollect and recall. For those of us, who knew Ron, purchased coins from him, were associated in positions along side of him, and still remember that telephone call reporting his tragic passing, we cannot forget. It is in this spirit that this remembrance was written: to remind us that Ron was that 'ambassador to numismatics'.

To continue his legacy, in the immediate years after his passing, the Northern California Numismatic Association (NCNA) established the 'Ron Miller Memorial Award', 'The Miller Medal', as it is named. This annual award has honored several Californian coin celebrants in its nearly two decades and is intended to instill and to inspire his example for decades yet to be. In the end, Bruce Lee once remarked that "The Key To Immortality Is First Living A life Worth Remembering." Nothing speaks of his legacy plus more eloquently of Ronald Lee 'Ron' Miller.
